The sensitive solution
for menopausal women

Dietary Supplement

Hormones shape female phases of life

Women are different. From childhood to old age, female sex hormones shape a woman's physical development and well-being. In many phases of life, the power of the sex hormones is noticeable. Be it puberty, which is reflected in the skin of many girls, during the menstrual cycle with its physical and emotional state or during the tangible hormonal upheaval during the menopause: In every stage of a woman's life, hormonal balance has a strong influence on her health and well-being.

Nutrifem Meno-Balance Formula – what is it?

Nutrifem Meno-Balance Formula is a comprehensive nutrient and herbal combination to support the hormonal balance of women in childbearing age and during menopause. Monk's pepper extract supports the physiological well-being during the menstrual cycle and contributes to the female hormonal balance during menopause. Vitamin B₆ helps regulate hormonal activity and supports the hormonal balance of women.
